The Senior Class of 1956 wishes to dedicate its yearbook to the hope that its generation will be the one to achieve world peace and harmony.

As you open this U 'n I, your yearbook for 1955-1956, you will find in these pages a record of what you have done with your years at Uni High. As you look at the pictures of you, your classmates, and your teachers, you will be able to recall vividly those swift-passing years and how the people will whom you spent those years look--and what they did. The Class Calendar provides a detailed record of your many activities during the 1955-1956 school year. The Class Will and the Class Prophecy will give you an insight into the future activities of you and your classmates.

As the years pass, you can open your yearbook at any time and be reminded of your graduation activities. You can recall, by a quick glance at the photographs, your teachers and your friends. And you will know, beyond any doubt, that YOUR class is the one that has made Uni High so outstanding.

It is good for you to remember your school days. For those of us who are already "graduates" there is the opportunity to recall our school days as we see them through yours. Undoubtedly both you and I will receive the same measure of satisfaction and pleasure from turning through these pages in later years.

I am glad to welcome you to this time of remembering and to the many later times when this yearbook will remind you of your school and of all of us who were a part of it when you were here.

STUDENT COUNCIL COMMITTEES

STUDENT COUNCIL

The 1955-1956 Student Council was under the leadership of Laurie McClure, President; Bob Parker, Vice-President; Ann Cleary, Secretary; Rik Fjelde, Treasurer; and Miss Leppert, Sponsor.

Council instituted many new things this year; it made the purchase of activity tickets mandatory, instituted an honor study hall, joined the community in helping furnish recreational facilities for the Youth Home, purchased a juke box, started a new program of student orientation, joined the District of Association of Student Councils, and was honored by having one of its members--Bob Parker--elected treasurer of that organization. In October, the students and faculty joined forces to present Uni High's most financially successful carnival.

Student Council committees also improved and increased their services to the school. In all, Student Council successfully fulfilled its purpose as the primary governing body of the school.

GARGOYLE

GARGOYLE, the school's weekly newspaper, was written, edited, and produced by a student staff of 30 members. Organization and assignment meetings were held Wednesday noon, and the staff met Monday night to put the paper together.

The paper was dittoed, with the exception of quarterly printed issues.

The officers of the 1955-56 GARGOYLE staff were:

Co-editors	Jim Bardeen, Polly Viens
Advertising manager	Nadine Hansen
Business manager	Richard Newmark
Secretary	Jane Prosser
Production manager	Mary Lou Caughron
Page editors	Pat Webb
	Marcia Kaplan
	Virginia Garrett
	Patty Hagan
Faculty sponsor	Charles P. Martin

G.A.A. COUNCIL

The Girls' Athletic Association, designed to promote interest and participation in girls' sports, grew in size and enthusiasm this year.

The Intramural program was far more successful than usual, with archery, tennis, basketball, volleyball, and softball the featured activites.

The vice-versa "Star Dance" was one of the best ever sponsored by G. A. A.

The officers of the 1955-56 G.A.A. Council were:

Faculty sponsor	Miss Marjorie Souder
President	Virginia Haworth
Vice-president	Katy Almy
Secretary	Lorna Klorfine
Treasurer	Nancy Kelly
Intramural manager	Pat Webb
Sophomore representative	Mary Lou Caughron
Freshman representative	Carolyn Lanham
Sub representative	Judy Mann

ORCHESIS

This year, Orchesis, under the talented supervision of Mrs. Geulah Abrahams, enlarged its membership and greatly increased its activities. Members were required to attend Monday meetings, and on Tuesdays workshops were held. In addition to two workshops, several members of Orchesis choreographed group dances. A member-at-large was elected each month to represent the general membership of Orchesis at the board meetings.

The officers of the 1955-56 Orchesis Board were:

President	Jean Carter
Secretary	Mara Taub
Treasurer	Katy Almy
Wardrobe Chairman	Nadine Taub

Unique, which was revived this year after a year's absence due to lack of interest, is the school's literary magazine. It is written and edited by students and is put out when there is sufficient material to merit doing so. The Unique staff put out four issues this year which included many original and unusual stories written by students of the various English classes. Unique was very well received this year and it is hoped that the magazine will continue to be a fruitful outlet for Uni High's talented writers.

SCIENCE CLUBS

Science Club was one of Uni High's new clubs, and one of the most active. Its purpose was to stimulate interest in science among Uni High students.

Each student was responsible for preparing a program for one of the Tuesday noon meetings. Two of the most interesting programs during the year were a field trip to visit ILLIAC and a talk by Mr. John Bardeen on transistors. Jim Bardeen was president and Nancy Simon was secretary.

TERRAPIN

Uni High School's synchronized swimming groups, Terrapin, Pledges, and Junior Terrapin, boasted a total membership of more than thirty girls. The officers were: Kate Shattuck, President; Laurie McClure, Vice-President and Treasurer; Nancy Simon, Secretary; Julie Johnson, Pledges Representative; Janet Fairbanks, Junior Terrapin Representative. Miss Souder sponsored the groups. "Times Square Under Water," the annual show, was accompanied by songs from various Broadway musicals. GAA helped with the production by taking charge of publicity and decorations.

THE CURIOUS SAVAGE

On December 11 and December 12 the University High School Players put on a production of THE CURIOUS SAVAGE, a comedy by John Patrick. It is the story of an eccentric millionairess who is placed in a rest home by her children as a part of their effort to get her money. The plot develops around her visit in the rest home and her relationships with the other guests and with her children.

MUSIC

Uni High School's Music Department included Madrigals, Boys' Ensembles, Girls' Ensemble, and Mixed Chorus directed by Helmut Sienknecht, and Girls' Chorus and Orchestra directed by Richard Schwalbe.

MADRIGALS, the most select singing group, which is composed of ten members, performed in the Christmas Concert and presented concerts locally and out-of-town. Madrigals has added several numbers not usually included in the traditional 16th century music. BOYS ENSEMBLE AND GIRLS' ENSEMBLE were for Junior and Senior students. MIXED CHORUS, made up of 60 members, presented a Christmas Cantata and took part in the local Musical Festival in May. GIRLS' CHORUS was composed of 20 underclass girls. ORCHESTRA, with its 35 instrumentalists, performed in the Christmas Concert and presented its Annual Spring Concert.

U-CLUB

U-Club, Uni High's lettermen's organization, was very active this year. The boys sold popcorn, took tickets and ushered at basketball games. U-Club was the sponsor of a very successful dance in October, titled, "Strains and Sprains."

The new U-Club initiates were Lindsey Black, Leonard Hays, Dave Lantz, Bill Plymire, Dean Wallen, and Dan Yohe.

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross Country, the fall sports event, is Uni High's newest sport. This is its second year. A Cross Country race lasts for two miles and is run on almost any kind of course. Due to the length and location of the course, Cross Country racing is seldom considered a spectator sport.

JUNIOR VARSITY

The Junior Varsity had a better year this year than did the varsity, with ten wins and six losses. Their best score was an easy 67-19 against Ogden, followed by a 63-29 against Potomac. This fine showing under the coaching of Coach Richard Schnell should put next year's varsity near the top.

BASKETBALL VARSITY

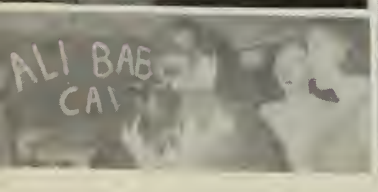
The "Buckeyes" had an "off" year this year. Their only win was their first bout with Ogden, 44 to 41. The team always gave the spectators an excellent show of ball-handling, but this was not enough to off-set its lack of shooting ability.

Jim Buckley and Steve Poulos were added to the varsity from the reserves to add more shooting power, and Grant Fairbanks and John Buley were traded to the reserves so that they could get some more experience. The loss of six senior varsity members will cut a large hole in next year's team, but thanks to an active bench this year and a good reserve team this year, Uni High should have a good team next year.

Look at all the Juniors! The best class!!! Come see some of our games. We'll win more than this year's team did.

John

R A H !



SEPTEMBER

7. Again Uni's rooms and corriders are filled with the happy voices of young people eager to fill their minds with knowledge--and we have to be here ten minutes earlier --at 8:00 A.M., yet!!

8. Orientation assembly--all students old and new alike crowded into the gym to have a bird's-eye view of all the extra-curricular activities. We hope some--such as Terrapin in bubble hats--were exaggerated.

9. This Howdy Hop was characterized firstly by its fabulous organization, (by the Seniors) and secondly by its equally fabulous decoration (by the Seniors). Very interesting games were played--one seemed to consist mostly of wrenching stockings and other apparel off unwilling participants. A truly edifying event!

12. Due to something teachers prefer to call a "meeting" they gave us the morning off. We hope they didn't suffer extensively by having to meet during our vacation.

14. G.A.A. can't say it wasn't warned. G.A.A. held its annual picnic--in the gym, because it was raining. Rain at a G.A.A. picnic--according to G.A.A. officers--has happened only once a year (every year) in the past.

15. Carnival Assembly! Along with being introduced to what the Carnival is (the theme this year: Roaring Twenties) we learned that Mr. Proff is a frustrated Groucho Marx and Mr. Allen a frustrated ring-toss target.

15-16. A whoppin attendance of 30-plus heralded the Orchesis Workshop. It looks now as if Orchesis will be of respectable size this year--big enough to be seen.

17. Some lucky, lucky people saw "Yeomen of the Guard" in Chicago today. But,(?!), they couldn't remember the performance--their only comment, "Ask 'Pete' and Dave what we sang on the way home.

26-30. This is the paradoxical week when people kill themselves working, and get out of class for doing so!! Unfortunately it is only for money--not in the quest of knowledge. In other words: Carnival week is here!! Calloo-callay!!

27-28. Our first two cross-country meets--with Tremont and Bismark. We lost them both. Is it worth mentioning that we compiled the highest score?

28-29. With the "Curious Savage" announced as the fall play it is now time for tryouts. Mr. Rahlf says it only takes 27 days to produce a play. Good luck!

OCTOBER

1. One wild night of revelry! The Carnival!! Expanded to the great outdoors to include "dunking" and also, due to more complete publicity than ever before, there was a large crowd--including unfortunately, some "young people with misdirected energies." In spite of this handicap: A FINAL PROFIT OF $615.84.

4. We could have told Mr. Rahlf which of us should be admitted to the 'home' in the fall play "The Curious Savage." However he chose to find out his own way and announced the cast today--Nadine Hansen is the principal occupant. Congratulations? Nadine.

11,19,21. Uni High went down three in a row in cross-country, twice to Mattoon and once to Tremont. There is dancing and singing somewhere, it just isn't here.

19. For once it was sunny for a field trip--all the Biology students rejoiced and went carousing off to Kickapoo to gather insects. They came home loaded with frogs, turtles, fish, worms and two snakes.

20. The juniors played the seniors a football game. The juniors lost, naturally. Although less skilled players they claim they lost because of an excessively large penalty due to their "language." Moral: Virtue is its own reward.

21,22. These days Gargoyle and the great and glorious Yearbook staff members (of the one you now see before you) have a distinct advantage. They flashed little cards and zoomed off--ostensibily to an ISHSPA meeting. Hmph?

22. Really now lettermen, isn't it too much--red and white crepe paper for blood and bandages--and at a dance, too? Fortunately many managed to forget this and had a good time at "Strains and Sprains"--the above alluded to annual U-CLUB DANCE.

25. Underclassmen elections have been announced; after a slight delay of two weeks. It was reported that the Freshmen got so enthusiastic about campaigning that they gave a campaigning party--using gas station banners from last 4th of July.

28. An assembly today featured a showing of a film made from the ALMANAC OF LIBERTY, by Chief Justice Stephen O. Douglas. The whole plot was held up because of some clock-hands that stopped at 10:23 A.M. The Seniors spent many hours in follow-up discussions on this movie.

NOVEMBER

1. Everyone (that is a few of the more enthusiastic cast members and Mr. Rahlf) has been busily working on the technical aspects of "The Curious Savage." Their biggest problem is how to acquire a brown suit, a blue suit and a grey suit.

3. Well, first they called it wet grounds, and then they called it obscene language and then they called it 6-0, and then the faculty said they won the annual Faculty-Senior football game.

4. The Seniors had a class meeting in which the surprising question of whether or not the Seniors should have a Baccalaureate was brought up. After hot debate with "tradition" against "principle," tradition won.

11. Teachers have convinced themselves to the point where they will not consider bribes--and consequently put nasty half-truths on yellow papers, called the "progress" reports and are handing them out!!

11,12. Both performances of "The Curious Savage" went off delightfully. The audience was small but extremely appreciative. There was a regrettable tendency to think of many characters as type-cast.

14. A big day for any old-time Uni High student. Our former dearly beloved dance teacher, Mim Rosen, reappeared with a dance trio from Washington, D.C. The house was full for the performance; all her friends, and with good reason, thought she was wonderful.

15. Tonight Junior and Senior parents go to a P.T.A. meeting to hear how their off-spring can get into college. Unfortunately they leave unsolved the vital problems of scholastic standing and ready cash.

19. Today, as has been planned for months, was the Tri-High Dance. Many went, reassuring themselves that they were really "Queen For a Knight." What disturbed us was the size of the gym--it was big enough for at least REAL locker rooms.

23-27. We started off Thanksgiving vacation with a bang--by losing our first basketball game to Mahomet. Today was also the deadline for the Seniors' English research papers. Immediately after handing them in the Seniors pronounced themselves completely recovered from the strain of the mental exertions and in shape to go right home and SLEEP!!

DECEMBER

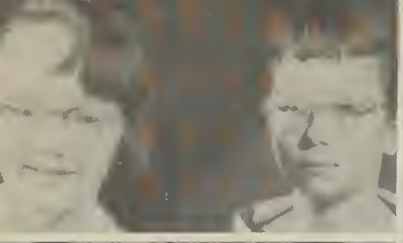
2,3. We are said to have given A.B.L. a scare during tonight's basketball game. Being kind-hearted souls we let them have the happy ending, and lost: 72-58. It was much the same with Homer the next day, although the score was different: 66-38.

9. Today eight Uni High students went to a Young Citizens of Central Illinois conference in Decatur and "Unique" had a re-organizational meeting at which Emil de Antonio was elected editor. There was some doubt as to which event was the most important.

10. Really out-distanced this time--Uni lost to Potomac, 96 to 38. C'mon fellows, hit it again--harder, harder!!

11. Instead of merely songs, this year the Christmas Concert included orchestral numbers, Madrigals' singing and a cantata sung by Mixed Chorus. Ver-r-r-y interesting.

13. Littered all over are signs imploring us to Keep Our School Clean. One really doesn't know which to do first: distribute wastebaskets or tear down the signs.



14. The Progress Report Committee reports that they are Doing Something about the unimformative and generally ambiguous state of progress reports. What they are doing is unknown (though there are rumors about Grades every quarter.)

19. Now that the French classes--joined for the first time by the German classes and sundry other individuals--have gone caroling, the Christmas Season is official.

20. Not only was today the last day of school before vacation--complete with a Surprize assembly and refreshments, and the day the first printed GARGOYLE came out (two months late), but today was also the day the Juniors held the Christmas Dance. The electric eye doors at the far end of the Club Commons were once again widely used and a good time was had by all.

23. Shades of last year's operetta! This time when GONDOLIERS was put on there were slight changes. The largest was that from gondolas to bicycles as a means of transportation. This final touch to an evening of great hilarity was thought by many to be a great improvement.

25. Today is the day most of us got up earlier than we normally do--but had, we hope, good reason. In other words: a Tremendously Merry Christmas to all.

JANUARY

3. All good things come to an end. Back in school after vacation we are all trying to convince our teachers, and they us, that we all find it bearable to be in each others company again.

6. To rub off the last bit of holiday cheer left Uni was defeated by Bellflower, 63-56. Isn't this going too far?

9. They have really made good their word!--yes, UNIQUES are out!! There was some mumbling among the staff: "How soon will it be discovered that the Freshmen are what kept this issue alive?" They want more contributions!!!

14. After much stewing, the Tri-High stunt show was put on tonight. We all thought "Billie" Plymire was a darling.

17. Those mesmerized people you see waving their arms to music and walking in formation after school are merely the first mild signs that the Terrapin show is in Rehearsal and will soon be Presented.

21,28. The time when Uni really needs martyrs--to stand out in the cold and beg for dimes (the March, of course). Unfortunately the organization allows no rake-off whatsoever.

24,25,26. Amazing the number of long faces in the library giving themselves a grey pall over IT. (exams). After it was over, and everyone managed to stagger through alive, the Seniors gave an all-school party. The theme alone: Bring Your Own Decorations (i.e, a sign reading Ali Baba's Cave and thirty undecorated Christmas trees, etc., etc.) assured success.

27. We won We won We won!!!!!!! That is A Basketball Game!!!!!!! With Ogden, 44-41!!!!!!! Yah, hurrah!!!!!!!

31. Our new choral director, Mr. Sienknecht, has a truly inventive mind. This year, O terque quaterque beati!, we are doing "Down in the Valley" and the "Brooklyn Baseball Cantata." Rehearsals have already started.

Sue,
I can't think of anything exciting to write Sue at least this is better than nothing. Well — you be good to those nice boys on your class (they do deserve it you know!!) Be good next year but not too much. Love, David Broadbent

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1956 leave

To the class of '57 our exalted position of seniority
To the class of '58 our abilities in the fine arts
To the class of '59 our enviable qualities of leadership
To the class of '60 our boundless sophistication

I, Peggie Alexander, whould leave Uni High boys--if only there were any.
I, Katy Almy, leave the notes on mylocker to anyone with strength enough to pull them off.
I, Jim Bardeen, leave the Physics lab to Mr. Renner in the hope that he might follow in my footsteps.
I, Fred Brightbill, leave. I'm tired of waiting.
I, Dave Broadbent, leave my bright red hat to "Lights and Loudspeakers."
I, Jean Carter, leave my ability to translate everything into dance to Miss Changnon to translate back into French.
I, Ann Cleary, leave for a girls school--I have decided to defeat the purpose of life.
I, Carol Cope, leave my preference for "civics" to Mr. Brown.
I, Linda Dehner, leave my way with fellows to Linda Lantz.
I, Roland Dekker Van Ghyl, leave my alarm clock to David Norton so he will grow up to be just like me.
I, Emily Fessler, leave--and take Keith with me.
I, Rik Fjelde, leave my car sitting in the street in front of school.
I, Kathy Garman, leave Uni High's Horse Heritage to Norm Paul.
I, Jane Green, reluctantly leave my box of kleenex to Dan Yohe.
I, Renee Greenman, leave my furs to some poor fur-less creature.
I, Ellen Hamp, leave my frequent trips toMichigan to Emil de Antonio so he'll have some other place to go.
I, Nadine Hansen, leave my "Oh, Must we" to all Uni High first year teachers.
I, Jane Harms, leave my "afternoon job" to all half-time teachers.
I, Charles Hassel, leave my unique place in civics class to Fred Burgomaster.
I, Virginia Haworth, leave my torn gym shirt to Judy Levin.
I, Leonard Hays, leave my powerful command of language to Tom Read.
I, Judy Hunt, leave my enormous vocabulary to Sally Stearns for use in Latin IV.
I, Bob Jones, leave ALL the girls--gladly!!
I, Nancy Kelly, leave my quiet mannerisms to Tony Carter.
I, Lorraine Kirk, leave my car, with love, to any future gangs who may need transportation.
I, Lorna Klorfine, leave the cheerleaders--after four years--no wins.
I, Nancy Knosher, leave my musical ability to future freshman boys music appreciation classes.
I, Suzie Kuhn, have just come back. I don't want to leave!
I, Dave Lantz, leave my enthusiasm for sports to Mr. Sienknecht.
I, "Pete" Longacre, leave my bicycle to anyone who will ride as much as I have.
I, Stu Mann, leave Uni High girls for the birds.
I, Mickey McArty, leave my favorite murder mystery to Mike Day.
I, Laurie McClure, leave my ticket stub from Oberlin College.
I, Kent McConkey, leave my referee's whistle to Mike Morrell so that he may carry on.
I, Harriet McDaniel, leave my giggle to Miss Keenan.
I, Isola Newbill, leave my volleyball serves to the basketball team.
I, Bill Phymire, leave,---PLUNK!
I, Jane Prosser, leave my memories of Cape Cawd to anyone who has never been out of the state of Illinois.
I, Frank Reeves, leave my flexible class schedule toKen Laitnen--since he really doesn't need it.
I, Eva Schrodt, leave to take care of the most wonderful child in the world--my own.
I, Kate Shattuck, finally, finally, leave, leave, leave!!!
I, Muggsy Sherwin, leave my natural lettering ability to the poor overworked Bulletin Board committees.
I, Nancy Simon, leave my virtues to the select few who will want them.

I, Ruth Stephens, leave the combination of Madrigals and Cheerleading to anyone foolish enough to take it.
I, Mara Taub, leave Baccalaureate, and all that goes with it--long may it flourish.
I, Polly Viens, leave my knowledge of Gargoyle "scoops" to the second floor telephone.
I, Dean Wallen, leave my slabs of limestone and trips to the Sangamon to any Biology student that is desperate for specimens.
I, Dick Warner, leave my collection of cuff-links, tie clasps, studs and miscellaneous collar-buttons to Bill Hays.
I, Joyce Weaver, leave my soliciting job for Al Daniels studio to any future salesmen.
I, Pat Webb, leave my deceptively silent smile to any argument--for a dollar an hour.
I, Sarah Whiting, leave my German student teaching to the German teachers.

CLASS PROPHECY

Peggie Alexander has been instrumental in regaining the independence of Texas.
Katy Almy has decided to change her middle name--she can't decide between Faith, Hope and Charity.
Jim Bardeen is doing an icebox commercial on television.
Fred Brightbill has become a great-grandmother thanks to 57 li'l white mice.
David Broadbent is teaching Danny Kaye double talk.
Jean Carter has just married a Zulu chief.
Ann Cleary has just become the first president of the world government.
Carol Cope has become the 1,442,000,002 full-fledged anesthetist in Pago-Pago.
Linda Dehner is still trying to decide when to wear which ring.
Roland Dekker Van Ghyl is now forging notes for students late to first hour Physics classes.
Emily Fessler is head of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Republicans.
Rik Fjelde has become a Father to nuns and a brother to all.
Kathy Garman has just conquered her heart's desire--the world's champion bull, Rufus the XIV.
Jane Green has succeeded Miss Leppert as the most active woman in Illinois.
Renee Greenman has become one-half of a fur business--she wears them.
Ellen Hamp is modeling frat pins for Mademoiselle.
Nadine Hansen has been gaining fame for some years now with her Miss Hart column in the Christen Science Monitor.
Jane Harms is a clothes designer--she designs children's training pants.
Charles Hassell is lucky--he just had kittens.
Virginia Haworth is a bum. She lives on olive oil and pumpernickel.
Leonard Hays is the first tenor floor scrubber the senate has ever had.
Judy Hunt has left our midst--she's become a normal American girl.
Bob Jones is a construction engineer. He constructs cuspidors.
Nancy Kelly has changed her name to Grace and has just married the prince of Lichtenstein.
Lorraine Kirk is with us no longer. She was finally burnt to a little black cinder by her sun lamp.
Lorna Klorfine has become a chain-store operator of bowling pins--she has just negotiated for her seventeenth bowling pin.
Nancy Knosher is lighting candles for Liberace's grandson.
Suanna Kuhn has finally made a memory--she has built an addition to Uni High.
Dave Lantz, now in the hairdressing business, has unwittingly started a fad for home hair cuts.
"Pete" Longacre has taken Christian Dior's place with her new Q look.
Stu Mann is an umpire for the New York Yankees. He's getting his revenge.

Mickey McArty has finally thrown himself out of joint after a wrestling match with a volleyball.

Laurie McClure is "Pooshing Paddles" for Bannister.

Kent McConkey has converted Russia with his folk songs.

Harriet McDaniel is the star attraction in Radio City Music Hall--in her role as "the mighty oak."

Isola Newbill has opened a day nursery for ducks.

Bill Plymire has been spending the last ten years in Joliet for having a few too many wives.

Jane Prosser is playing Froggy the Gremlin on the Smiling Ed show.

Frank Reeves is a fence --dealing especially in jewelry and rings.

Eva Schrodt has become a billboard keeper.

Kate Shattuck is head librarian at the British Museum.

Muggsy Sherwin has become the first all- day commuter. By the time she gets into town from her 200 mile distant farm, it is time for her to turn around and go back.

Nancy Simon has married a millionaire and is doing nothing.

Ruth Ann Stephens has just been promoted to head orderly in the Chanute Hospital.

Mara Taub has just resigned from the human race.

Polly Viens has just been accepted by the Met. as a bass.

Dean Wallen has finally gotten away.

Dick Warner triumphantly announces the acquistition of his first automobile.

Joyce Weaver has just opened a saloon.

Pat Webb hasn't told anyone what she has been doing for the last twenty years- so we just don't know.

Sarah Whiting has founded a new charity organization for herself. She is acting president and membership.

Too bad for
Ken!
Have been thru summer - but why be good?
We'd be glad we're through!
It can't think
~~of~~ about anything else, so, rather than repeat myself
I'll stop!

Patty Hagan

"Sweet Sue"

Anyway, that's your nick-name around home, Dad is really teasing me with it. I still can't believe we're going together and I'll bet you won't be able to stand me much longer but who knows? Anyway you're fun to be with and especially fun to tease. Maybe we'll have a "fling" next years, who knows? and maybe we'll even make it to the Prom. I'll be I win our bet this summer - it'll be good for me, too. Darn, why do you have to be going to Michigan? darn, phooey x&%!* and even a "Gee, fellas" Gee, gee, gee, gee, gee, gee, gee, I still can't believe it, but it's sure been nice.

I think I'd better quit while I'm ahead. Everybody seems to get a big kick out of this - they just don't understand me (sniff). Well, anyway be good and have fun next year, 'specially at the Prom.

Love
Ponnie

"Sweet Sue"

Anyway, thats your neck-name around home. Dad is really teasing me with it! I still can't believe we're going together — 4 years now! (scuse me) I'll still bet you won't be able to stand me much longer but who knows? Anyway you're fun to be with and especially fun to tease. Maybe both of us will have a "fling" next years, who knows? and maybe we'll even make it to the Prom — it was fun this year, wasn't it? I'm not gonna bet with you this summer — if anybody asks me I'll go! Darn, why do you have to be going to Michigan? darn, phooey x!!! & Oh well, if I get to come up fellas" Gee, gee, gee, gee, gee, gee, gee, I still can't believe it, but its sure been nice.

I think I'd better quit while I'm ahead. Everybody seems to get a big kick out of this — they just don't understand me (sniff). Well, anyway be good and have fun next year, 'specially at the Prom!

Wouldn't it be hairy if we both went again?

I hope you're not too mad at me, but it's irresistible — I don't mean Ronnie, although you seem to think so!

I don't no why eyem such a nutt, butt, (whoops! 'scuse me) it just grows on me! But, I think eyem a ——! no, not really — just 2 iticular!

Some of those things above might sound a tiensy bit falimar, but Ginger's so graceful. I dew hoppe Burd ist exprused.

Anyway, bye now! Port ó Prancer,

Swedé dee — no!

Tra La La, FDR, crumb!, Phooey

Does this exmind u of math class? hmmm-

LOV, Thally

Sue

I know how you feel being all through with French. Good luck always.

Marc Rhoades

Dear Sue,

My stomach is growling so this will be short. It has been lots of fun this year, though. Don't forget to write to me. 3935 Riley Avenue; Terre Haute, Indiana. Have fun in Michigan; although it is too bad you have to leave Konnie. But of course he will be there when you get back. (You hope.) You'll have to write to me next fall and tell me everything you're doing. (Well, almost everything. Ha! Ha!) I smell food so it's time to quit.

Love,
Diane

Dear Susie,

I wish I were going to Michigan this summer instead of you, and you probably do too. Golly, we sure have had fun together this year. "Meet me in Las Vegas" was a good movie, even if Patty and Birdie didn't like it. (By the way - thanks for the safety pins) Oh yes, the food was good too!

Be sure and sell plenty of ads for the yearbook next year, so we'll have more money to make a better yearbook than has ever before been made!

my inspiration has run out.

Period.

Cute Glück,

Marian

Have a good time in Bridlington this summer (I presume you're going there) and I'll see you next fall for sure. Be good wherever you are and good luck always.
